

KATIE PEBBLES

ABCs of Attraction Wing Girl and Social Concierge

The only thing standing in between you and what you want is yourself. -Katie Pebbles

Katie Pebbles is a Wing Girl and Social Concierge at the ABCs of Attraction. Katie grew up as 'one of the boys' which led to her career as an Expert Men's Lifestylist. Katie uses her knowledge in regards to relationships, fashion, and lifestyle to help clients see themselves from a woman's point of view in turn helping them go from 'less than sought after' bachelors into well polished gentleman who are ready for life and love.

Katie attended The Ohio State University where she was a member of the Alpha Phi Sorority and earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Business and Hospitality Management.

After earning her degree she moved to Las Vegas, Nevada for a dose of sunshine and to pursue her career. Growing up in Ohio just outside of Pittsburgh, PA, Katie spent most of her childhood focused on academics and the performing arts, which eventually led to a long resume of pageants, acting, and modeling opportunities.

She was given the great honor of being chosen as a debutante for the Governor's Ball of West Virginia as well as later winning the title of Miss Nevada International in 2011 where she promoted her platform working with numerous organizations to help young girls and women build confidence. These opportunities polished Katie and made her an expert in social etiquette, body language, and the art of forming a positive media and social presence. She uses these experiences to translate what it means and looks like for the everyday man.

After a 3 month move to Beijing, China, Katie moved to Los Angeles in 2012, where she found her skills and passions come together by joining the ABCs Team. Her past experiences have left Katie with an eye for a polished look, an expert in dating and social skills, and a love to help others grow.

She continues her mission by helping others develop a positive self-image and increase self-confidence through personal development and coaching. Katie currently resides in Hollywood with the love of her life, Bailey Day, her 5 year old baby Chihuahua.